

Project Training Over Live Projects

Employers in IT industry choose to employ those who can deliver the output right from the beginning. This is impossible with the fresh breed of students coming out from the institutes. In order to save the downtime, IT industry prefers to impart training that occupies six months in general.

ATWSPL, an ERP solution provider with distinct specializing in the area of information technology exclusively for manufacturing industry offer their attentive services in mutual interest.

ATWSPL can provide platform for engineering students to work over live industry project concurrently with studies.

The students may be benefited with the theory and practical approaches both and become part of the live industry well in advance, which they ought to be later.

Practical Training Over Live Industry / ERP Project

- ATWSPL will provide platform for engineering students to work over live industry project
- The duration will be of six months and may as well be treated as project / summer training for MCA / B.E. / B.TECH. students respectively.
- ATWSPL training sessions will groom the raw skill and make them useful for practical purpose as per the industry requirements.
- Such programmes will be organized concurrently with studies at the institute. Hence, the students will be benefited with the theory and practical aspects both.
- Engineering students can deliver the output from day one with the help of their live training and their immediate output will definitely be well accepted at the industry shop floor to heighten future carrier progression
- Additionally, ATWSPL can also arrange the following:

- Personality development training module
- Communication skill with specific reference to English speaking course
- Placement packages
- Placement opportunity at ATWSPL software application development

○Placements

Industry professionals prefer to employ students possessing following traits:

- Crystal clear concepts
- Logical reasoning
- Software development acumen
- ATWSPL, project training will comprehensively impart the above qualities so that the students themselves become confident enough to get success in written test & interviews held during placements.
- Placement tips with question answer sessions and mock placement exercise will be provided to build confidence.
- Working on live ERP project provides enough knowledge & confidence to individuals that may prompt the MNC's to select them.
- Institute can be ahead by placing all the engineering students in reputed IT companies
- Institute efforts to arrange the placement will be reduced and the ultimate target of students to excel in their carrier can be easily ascertained
- The name, success and satisfaction rate of your institute will be drastically increased

Project Training Over Live Projects

○ Personality development and communication skill development programs will further help the students in following areas to perform better during placement activities. Namely:

- Problem solving attitude
- Team work temperament
- Sound EQ
- Leadership qualities
- Ability to push self and others to achieve challenging goals

Project Contents:

- Opportunity to work on the latest platform with complete object oriented language
- Training by the IT professionals
- The blend of theoretical and practical knowledge will be extremely useful in the core areas.

· The contents of ATWSPL training over live industry projects are as under:

- Project Execution Tasks
- Project Management
- Project Monitoring Formats
- SRS Format
- Design Document Sample
- About .Net / ASP.Net / JAVA
- About SQL Server 2005
- Architecture
- Business Object
- Entity Classes
- Data Access Layer
- Process Logic Sample
- Database Tips
- Standard Coding Document
- UI Interface
- General UI Sample
- Standard Codes
- Application Testing
- Installation, Testing & Bug Removal

Additional Package:

- Triggers & Stored Procedures
- SQL Reporting Services
- Views
- Data Analyzer

Emphasis will also be given over Communication and presentations skills and preparing for interviews

Certificate of project training on completion by ATWSPL an ERP solution provider indicating the specializations acquired certainly help to get excellent placements

· Project Duration:

| | |
|------------|-----------|
| MCA | 06 Months |
| BE/ B.Tech | 02 Months |